Leading with the Heart begins with a 3-day workshop that will enable you to:

- * Strengthen your resilience to face up to global ecological challenges;
- * Harness inner wisdom to create new ways of living and reduce ecological footprint;
- * Build rational, emotional and spiritual intelligence;
- * Learn how to listen deeply and question strategically;
- * Create communities of change with connectivity from local to global.

“Leading with the Heart took me out of my daily life and created a safe space to deeply question how I live and my role in planetary healing”.

“LwtH has enabled me to find my own thoughts – rather than someone else’s”.

“I am a lot more honest with myself and have stopped making excuses”.

Leading with the Heart begins with a 3-day workshop:

- * State of the planet, ecological footprint assessment;
- * Strategic questioning and deep listening skills training;
- * Self awareness, life stories and personal development;
- * Creative thinking, values and visioning;
- * Goal setting and planning for life changes and eco-social action.

There are also opportunities to train as mentors and facilitators for Youth LEAD* (Oz GREEN's award winning youth environmental leadership program) and opportunities to volunteer with OzGREEN programs within Australia and Internationally.

Outcomes

- * Passion, focus, drive and vision to be a change leader in your own life, community and beyond;
- * Ideas and action to build life-sustaining communities;
- * Strengthened resilience, emotional & spiritual intelligence and critical thinking skills;
- * Creation of communities of change that are connected nationally and globally;
- * Reduction of household ecological footprints (average 35% reduction in 6 months).

Sue and Colin Lennox (Oz GREEN Co-founders) lead by example and are recognised as leading social change facilitators and social entrepreneurs in Australia. They each bring over 30 years of experience and professional qualifications in environmental education, health promotion, social enterprise and community engagement gained on the ground in urban and rural settings in Australia and Internationally in India, East Timor, Papua New Guinea and Pakistan.
